

Please do not impede the progress that XM radio has made by offering large city weather and traffic. After all the information is public access on other devices such as Weather radios. I enjoy traveling across the contry in my truck and can use the information offered. If it is not available I will stop my service of XM radio since it is not offering anything extremely unique to local stations. This was my sole reason for getting the XM service in the first plance.